BE WORTHY OF YOUR HIRE

The following office rules were effective less than 100 years ago in this country. They were enforced by Zachary U. Geiger, sole proprietor of the Mount Cory Carriage & Wagon Works:

- 1 Office employees will daily sweep the floors, dust the furniture, shelves and showcases.
- 2 Each day fill lamps, clean chimneys, and trim wicks. Wash the window once a week.
- 3 Each clerk will bring in a bucket of water and a scuttle of coal for the day's business.
- 4 Make your pens carefully. You may whittle nibs to your individual taste.
- 5 This office will be open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. daily, except on the Sabbath, on which day it will remain closed.
- 6 Men employees will be given an evening off each week for courting purposes, or two evenings a week if they go regularly to church.
- 7 Every employee should lay aside from each pay a goodly sum of his earnings for his benefits during his declining years, so that he will not become a burden upon the charity of his betters.
- 8 Any employee who smokes Spanish cigars, uses liquor in any form, gets shaved at a barber shop, or frequents pool or public halls, will give me good reason to suspect his worth, intentions, integrity, and honesty.
- 9 The employee who has performed his labors faithfully and without faults for a period of five years in my service, and who has been thrifty and attentive to his religion duties, is looked upon by his fellowmen as a substantial and law abiding citizen, will be given an increase of five cents per day in his pay, providing a just return in profits from the business permits it.

a Johannes Werner son of a Georg Werner. Her husband and his father were both born in Ruppertsberg, Rhenish Bavaria but there is no indication in the records how they were related to our Werners if they were .)

N. B. Nicholas Joseph Werner has a note in his records to the effect that he found records tending to show that Bernhard Zimmermann had married one Anna Maria Andres [a daughter of one Andreas Andres and Maria Anna (Schmitt) Andres]

Anna Maria Andres was born at Deidesheim in 1789 and died 5-5-1855 .

From the dates of the births of Bernhard Zimmermann's children, it does not seem likely that either Anna Maria Andres or Maria Anna Hartmann could have been the mother of them all .
Possibly Anna Maria Andres was a second wife and the date given in N. J. Werner's records for the death of Maria Anna Hartmann (2-4-1833) incorrect. However there is no suggestion in the records to that effect .

Judging from the date of birth of Anna Maria Andres (1789)
it seems highly improbable that she could have been the mother of Susanna Zimmermann (Werner) who was born in 1803 . That would have made Anna Maria Andres a mother at 14. Whether she was actually the mother of any of the younger children of Bernhard Zimmermann does not concern us too much.

The End

N. B. The records from which the above was taken are in the form of typed sheets in a loose-leaf notebook. It is in the possession of Emma Elizabeth (Kuchs) Parker (Mrs. Charles A. Parker) of 3412 Fulton Blvd., Chicago, Illinois. The typing for these records of Nicholas Joseph Werner's , was done by Elena May Jeffers of Oklahoma City, Okla. (a granddaughter of Nicholas Werner who emigrated to the United States of America in 1854)

An earlier set of Nicholas Joseph Werner's genealogical records is in the possession of Elda Lucile Floyd of St. Joseph, Missouri. It consists of two ledger type notebooks in longhand .

These two sets of records go much farther afield amongst third and fourth cousins and relatives by marriage than this digest that I have made.

tory with her husband and son Joseph in 1858

About 1862 the family lived for a short time at Leavenworth, Kan.
Around 1901 she and her second husband disposed of their Doniphan General Store and after a brief stay at Cleveland, Ohio moved very dark but her eyes were grey-blue . Her features were good.

She possessed superior intelligence and an abundance of quiet well directed energy .

Though she was a strict disciplinarian with her family , she possessed a good sense of humor (She always said she had borne six and a half dozen children) .

After her first husband's death she supported herself, her mother, and her four small children by continuing the operation of her husband's tinshop and by conducting a private German-Language School (there were many German families around Doniphan) .

It should be stated that a tinshop in those days was primarily a place for the manufacture and sale of household tinware (pots and pans, buckets and kettles, stovepipes and such) . The tinshop also carried a line of stoves and she made at least one trip by river steamer down the Missouri River to St. Louis to arrange for their purchase .

When the women of the village did any canning, she soldered the cans shut for them .

She was an expert gardener . She did a man's work in a large vegetable garden and the large yard around the store (they lived upstairs*) was well stocked with flowers and ornamentals .

All in all she was a very exceptional woman .

She lies buried on the family lot in a country cemetery just north of the onetime village of Doniphan . The lot has a large red granite monument upon it. The cemertly is well kept .
